Class Prophecy

Five-four-three-two-one-Blast Off! Sputter, sputter. Uh-oh! Now what can we do? Our trip around the world is scheduled for today. The only possible person that can fix this passenger missile, developed by Professor Oren Frye, is Ervin Deal, who is employed at Cordell's Military Repair Base.

In order to get there from our base at Moola-Moola Land, we will have to rent an atomic sputnikmobile from Barry Davis' Used Car Lot. Jerry Fisher, our driver, who is the noted driver of the Sputnik 500, will accompany us to the Repair Base which is located in the Metropolis of Drexel. Robert Branch, a noted heart surgeon, and Ruby Smith, an experienced nurse will also accompany us, as they do all passengers who ride with Jerry. As we go through the Drexel Intersection at the speed of sound, Ruby faints.

After finally arriving at the Repair Base, we find Ervin talking to Nancy Rector, a model at the Metropolis Show Room, which is displaying the newest fashions this year. Among them is the "Missile Look" designed by Mademoiselle Mary Alice Rockett who is also the private designer for Miss Imogene Keller, the Grace Kelly of today.

We finally persuade him to come along with us, as we see Dean Clark, the coach of the Drexel Missilites, driving by in his new fire-engine red Sputnikmobile.

As we arrive back at the ship, we see that it has been invaded by Larry Baker, a star of the new movie, "Grendel Lives Again" and co-starring Linda Gail Cooper as his mother. It seems that several people have been kidnapped. Among these are: Patsy Berry, MISS MOON FACE of 1999; Henry Baker, head coach at Duke University; Mary Jo Burns, a geologist from the Museum of Natural History; Professor Thomas Mauldin of Mount Rushmore Conservatory; Carl Self and Judy Griffin, noted columnists of the STAR GAZETTE. We will have to call on the SPACE NATIONAL GUARD, headed by Mayor Kenneth Berry, who is very happy to assist us. Included in his company are Sgt. Carson Baker, Pvt. Jerry Bumgarner, and Corporal Edward Smith.

As these husky men enter the passenger missile, they discover that Jimmy Beasley, noted director and producer, is giving a screen test to those of whom we thought kidnapped.

Ervin finally fixes the missile, and now we can blast off with Hildred Hildebran as our pilot and Jerry Curtis as co-pilot. The first stop on our flight is Paris, France. As we get off, we are greeted by a guide and interpretor. At first he looks a little odd with his goatee and mustache, but after careful examination, we discover that it is Monsieur Ronnie Franklin. He tells us that Barbara Baker is in Paris and has fulfilled her ambition of becoming a painter. We all want to see her, so we make sure to go to the Louvre, Paris' famous art museum. We carefully look at each of the paintings, but don't see any with her name on them. Oh, there she is, but why does she have on those jeans and a paint brush in her hand? Oh, we get it now. Well, that is one way of becoming a painter.

A trip to Paris is never complete without a visit to the better dress shops there. The first one we find is owned by Madame Peggy Cook and Ann Settlemyre. They are presently showing the SQUEEZED LOOK that gives the fashions quite a twist. Their biggest rival shop, owned by Madame Mary Piercy and Gail Rhoney is featuring several big sellers. Among these are such creations as the BEAN-POLE LOOK which is adequately described by the title.

From Paris, we go on to Rome, the city of romance. There, at the noted fountain, we see three girls who have been tossing coins for what seems hours. They are Ruth Crow, Peggy VanHorn, and Shirley Swink. At one of the beautiful theatres in Rome, we go to see a drama entitled ROMEO & JULIET. Lovely Barbara Carswell plays the role of Juliet while Jimmy Bradshaw thrills us with his performance of Romeo. Everyone has to laugh, however when, in the most romantic and tender scene, a stagehand David Stamey, comes walking out with a broom in his hand. Poor David, he was so shocked he couldn't even move.

From Rome, we go all the way to beautiful Hawaii. There we are greeted by four sun-tanned ladies. Because of their gorgeous tans they are difficult to recognize at first, but finally we figure out who they are. They are Freda Frye, Marie Lingerfelt, Louise Anderson, and Eunice Workman.

No one would go to Hawaii without spending several days at the beach. We stayed at an elaborate hotel owned by James Poarch. He invited us to take a cruise on his yacht. We gladly accepted and while we were on the ocean we passed Betty Powell and Tommy Sue Self, wealthy heiresses who spend quite a lot of their time in Hawaii.

At last our trip must end. Before leaving, however, we made it a point to visit the Lowdermilk Estate and see our former classmate, Kay. She was having a party in honor of Kenneth Lancaster, the newly elected Senator from Hawaii to the U.S., at the time of our arrival. Harold Williams, Governor of North Carolina, was also present at the festival. Kay Ross, Peggy Pearson, Pat Abee, Gloria Dale, and Rebecca Grigg, all wives of prominent embassadors, were in charge of the reception.

Finally, we arrived home safely. Our trip around the world had been very tiring, but we had enjoyed a marvelous time.

Edneyville In Opener Tonigh

Drexel Host To

Wolverines Big And Experienced With 9 Starters Returning

The Drexel High Wolverines will get the jump on the other teams in Burke County gridiron machines by tonight when they pry off the Griffith el against Edneyville. Kickoff time is 8 o'clock in the Drexel ball park.

Coach Ed Cooper is optimistic about his 1958 Wolverines with nine starters returning from the 1957 team that compiled a 7-3 record, losing only to Hildebran.

"I think we will have a better team than last year, but on two fullbacks who alternate the other hand we are playing a harder schedule this season," Cooper said yesterday. His assistant for the past two years, Rex Baird, agreed with him.

"We are more experienced than last year and the squad is further along than at this point last season," the coaches agreed.

Like all coaches Cooper and Baird wouldn't go out on the limb to predict the Wolverines' finish in the Skyline Conference, but with a line averaging 188 pounds and a backfield tipping the scales at 167 they could well be considered as dark horses.

In addition to the nine starters back among the 13 lettermen, the Wolverines have a letterman transfer from Valdese in end Clarence Poarch, a 175-pound senior. He will be at right end tonight. Also back is center Dean Clark, a 202-pound center who lettered in 1956 but was out last year because of injuries.

With Poarch holding down one

Returning at blocking back is Phil Burns, 160 junior fullback. Henry Baker, 155 senior, and Jerry Baker, 150 junior, alternate at left end. Larry Reece, 155 junior, will be at tackle. Reece split duties last year with all-conference Garry Mast. Two other regulars lost by graduation were all-conference center Tron and Bakersville.

Jackson again proved opportunistic Bear offense apparently lost by grabbing his second interception of the night three plays when Coach "Dub" Hord's vaunted force exploded for two quick touchdowns to lee what had been a tight game.

Drexel, in the meantime, managed to control the ball with the help of penalties on NCSD that gave the Wolverines four of their ten first downs.

The Wolverine offense wasn't exactly supercharged either, but Drexel managed to pick up yardage in little bits and add it up to ten yards to keep possession of the ball.

The lone Drexel score came with 20 seconds left to play, after the Bears had put the game out of reach.

NCSD's Barney Williamson returned the opening kickoff to the NCSD 42-yard line and the Bears lost and then picked up a first and ten before the sidelines to score the short losing the ball on downs on the Drexel 38.

The Wolverines managed only three yards in three tries and punted to NCSD, the ball being downed on the Bear 42.

The Bears then marched 58 yards in six plays for their first score. Quarterback Gary Greenwood picked up two first downs in the drive on runs of 5 and 13 yards before fullback James Jackson broke loose for a 34-yard trip to the end zone with 4:49 left in the quarter. Drexel's Carl Campbell stopped Williamson on his attempt to run the conversion and it was NCSD—6, Drexel—0.

At that point it looked as if the Bears were going to make liars out of the odds makers, but Drexel had other ideas.

After returning the following kickoff to the Wolverine 25, Drexel picked up a first down on the 38 via two five-yard penalties against NCSD. But two plays later, Williamson's pass was intercepted by Baker on the Bear 42.

Drexel returned the second half kickoff to the Wolverine 38 and then got as far as the Bear 42 with the aid of 15 and 5 yard penalties on NCSD that gave Drexel first downs. They then lost control of the ball on downs.

But Williamson fumbled on the Bear's first play and Campbell recovered for Drexel on the NCSD 40 to give Drexel another chance.

NCSD then began to find it's lost yards. Williamson picked up 8 yards, Greenwood lost five, but Fullback Bitzinger Mike Triplett pushed 32 for a first down on the Drexel 33. Greenwood then went around end for 21 yards and a first on the 12. But a Jackson fumble recovered by Drexel on the 11 ended the surge.

The Wolverines could pick up only 6 yards and punted from the 17. Greenwood took the kick on the 43 and returned it to the 19.

But NCSD was again thwarted by the stubborn Drexel defense, losing possession on the 13 after four running plays failed to get the necessary yardage.

Drexel quick-kicked to the 38 on the third down, but a 15-yard penalty by the play gave NCSD the ball on the 23. This time the Bears were not to be denied.

Four plays later triplett raced 11 yards off tackle as the clock said 8:22 and the Bears ended the suspense. Williamson ran the conversion and NCSD fans began to breathe easier.

Drexel was stopped cold after the subsequent kickoff and punted to NCSD, the ball being downed on the Bear 44.

Five plays later, Greenwood hit Williamson in the flat with a short toss and he raced 38 yds down the sidelines to score the touchdown. Williamson's pass from Greenwood failed.

Drexel's lone tally was in response to a Bear punt on their own 32, the Wolverine's began tossing the pigskin in an attempt to wipe out the big round zero on the scoreboard.

After a Baker toss fell incomplete the Wolverines picked up a first down on the Drexel 48 on a 15-yard penalty against the Bears. Baker then connected on a toss to Phil Burns who was in the clear, but Greenwood downed him from behind on the four.

Baker lost a yard and then passed right down the middle to Larry Reece for the touchdown and it was 13-6.

Both teams chalked up 10 first downs but the Bears had a 176-48 edge in rushing yardage. The Bulldogs completed two of six tosses for 31 yards while Drexel completed three of three passes for 62 yards. Both teams had two passes intercepted.

Score by quarters:

NCSD	0	0	0	13	— 13
Drexel	0	0	0	6	— 6

NCSD scoring: Touchdowns — Jackson (21, run); Triplett (11, run); Williamson (38, pass from Greenwood). Extra point: Williamson (run).

Drexel scoring: Touchdown — Reece (8, pass from Baker).

Bears Break Tight Game Wide Open In Fourth With 2 TD's

By TERRY O'ROURKE

The supposedly crippled Drexel Wolverines held the heavily favored NCSD Bears to a hard-earned 19-6 victory at the Morganton High stadium last night.

NCSD pushed across a first period touchdown to take a slim 6-0 lead, but didn't score again until the clock registered 8:22 left to play in the final quarter.

In between that time the usually explosive Bear offense apparently grew a case and the first string reception of the night three plays replaced until the final period when Coach "Dub" Hord's vaunted force exploded for two quick touchdowns to lee what had been a tight game.
